PRESS RELEASE

Legendary Cowboy Actors Appearing at the Clinton Presidential Library

Join us for a weekend of great music, reminisce about the “good old-western days”, and meet the great cowboy actors we admire, as the Clinton Presidential Library and Museum and the William J. Clinton Foundation proudly present, Back In The Saddle Again: A Roundup of Cowboy Heroes August 11-12, 2006.

Cowboy actors to be on the look out for are Will Hutchins known as “Sugarfoot Brewster” (Sugarfoot) and “Dagwood Bumstead” (Blondie); Denny Miller as “Duke Shannon” (Wagon Train) and “Tarzan”; Ty Hardin as “Bronco Layne” (Bronco); Robert Fuller as “Jess Harper” (Laramie), “Cooper Smith” (Wagon Train), and “Dr. Kelly Bracket” (Emergency); the balladeer Johnny Western; and Terrie Davis, daughter of Arkansas native Gail Davis as “Annie Oakley.”

“When I was growing up, these stars visited my home each week via television. Like other Baby-Boomers, I’m so thrilled to have an opportunity to see them in person at the Clinton Presidential Library,” said Library Director David Alsobrook.

Friday’s events begin at 3:00 p.m. with an autograph session with the cowboys and end with a concert by Johnny Western in the Great Hall from 7:30 p.m. – 8:30 p.m. Saturday’s events include symposium sessions at 10:00 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. with the cowboys, moderated by Boyd Magers (editor/publisher of Western Clippings), and autograph sessions. There will also be a question and answer segments.

The concert and each symposium are only $5.00 per event. To reserve seating, please call (501)244-2890, or you may purchase tickets the day of the show at the Library. Please remember that seating is limited.

Sponsors for this event include (to date) the Little Rock Convention & Visitors Bureau, Café 42, Doe’s Eat Place, The RIVERMARKET, Wild Oats, Whole Hog Café, and Krispy Kreme Donuts.

This event is being held in conjunction with our current exhibit Happy Trails: Cowboys of the Silver Screen which is on display until November 26, 2006.

The museum hours at the Clinton Presidential Library are Monday-Saturday, 9:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m. and Sundays from 1:00 p.m. until 5:00 p.m. Museum admission is $7.00 for adults, $5.00 for senior citizens 62+ and retired military with ID, as well as groups of 20 or more with advance reservations. Children 6 -18 are $3.00. Children under 6 and active military are free.

The Clinton Presidential Library is one of the eleven Presidential Libraries administered by the National Archives and Records Administration.
